Seeking & Living The Truth Of God

Summary: You need do nothing to be who and what you are. You exist perfectly in God's Mind, now.

Who you are exists within the interior substance of God and at the same moment, within the outward projected life of God, which is your Self.

Nothing exists in the projected universe that is not held within the interior substance of God.

God is not interested in knowing what He is not.

There is only joy in this moment.

God does not understand or see the past or the future as separate events, for they exist now, in this moment. God sees and knows the whole picture of Him Self, now. (Relax, you cannot control the events of your life, but you can choose joy and peace.)

You have done nothing wrong in your past or your future.

Be not guided by your past or your future.

God's power is His passion. God's passion is His power.

You fear God and the truth of God because you feel that you have done something wrong.

Why are you interested in living a life of fantasy and untruth?

Does your mind live within the heart and the substance of God?

Seek a mind and thoughts that desires the truth.

It is February 19, 2012 Paul Huffman speaking, at approximately 11:30 AM, Sedona, Arizona, of cloudy day, cool.

Is it not a beautiful day today, Paul? The sun is shining and the birds are singing and all is well in your world, a world of great beauty, a world of great harmony, a world that needs nothing to be who and what it is. And here you sit, waiting to feel and to know who and what you are. And yet you need do nothing, nothing, to be who and what you are.

You are the light of God. You are the reflected light of God. And God sees you as His son, His product, His image, and He lives His life through you, for that is the only way that God can be alive within Himself, within His projection, within His image, within His Creation. God creates from the inside of Himself, and He moves this substance of Himself from the inside, outward. God does not create from nothing. He creates from that which He is. Who you are exists within God, and exists outside of God, in the world of His projection, and a world of His desire to see Himself.

There is nothing new within the universe, within life, that is not held within the interior substance of God. God is not interested in making (projecting something other than Himself) something new, or God is not interested in fantasies. He is interested in seeing and knowing who He is. He is not interested in the shadow or the opposite of Himself. He is interested and desires to see, the reality of Himself. God is not interested in fear, or shame, or anger, or revenge, or judgment, for that is not who He is. God is interested in seeing the love that He is, for that is who and what he is. Why would God want to see and to know, that which He is not?

Why are you interested in living a life, that is not who you are Paul? Why are you interested in knowing the untruth of yourself? Why are you interested in seeing that which you are not? Why are you interested in knowing that which you are not? It is a waste of time. It is a waste of life. Who you are is the love, and the beauty, and the joy, and the peace of God. You are the energy, and the power, and the truth of God. For you to think otherwise is not the truth, and it is a waste of time. For you to be otherwise, to live otherwise, is not the truth of you, and it is a waste of time.

There is only the joy of this moment. You cannot start from the past. You cannot go forward into the future and start your life. You begin your life each moment, each day, now. Your life has nothing to do with your thoughts, or actions of your past. Your life has nothing to do with a future Paul, a Paul at eighty, or a Paul at the moment of death, or a Paul in the next lifetime, or a Paul in the past lifetime. God does not understand, or comprehend, past and future, for they do not exist. God wishes to see the love that He is at this moment, and at this [the next] moment, and now at this moment, and now at this moment. (13:25)

[God is not interested in you, or] God does not desire to see you in a fantasy, in a thought of untruth, in an event of untruth, (and) in a life of untruth. God desires with all His heart, with all His being, to see, to feel, to know, the love that He is. God is passionate about Himself and What He Is. God's power is His passion. God's passion is His power. Once you enter the Mind of God, once you enter this field of desire, this field of wanting to know, this field of passion, you understand that the joy is inside of what God is. God's joy is in the truth of God, and you cannot be outside of the truth of God. The truth of God exists in the moment, now. You have no past, whether it be a passed (life) of beauty and love, or a passed (life) of crime. And you have no future, whether it be a life in the future of love or crime.

God lives in this moment. God's life is in this moment. You have done absolutely nothing wrong in your past. You have done absolutely nothing wrong in your future. The beauty of God exists now. The truth of God exists now. If you are living a fantasy life, God cannot perceive you. God cannot see you. God cannot know you. God cannot live through you, for you exist in a non-reality. You exist in a fantasy world, or a shadow world, that has become darkened to God's seeing, and therefore there is simply a blank in God's reality. God seeks you out, but you hide in the shadows. God calls to you, but you call not back to God, for you are in fear of God, you are in fear of being as God is. You are in fear of the truth. You feel that you have done something wrong. You feel ashamed. You feel unworthy. And these thoughts of shame and unworthiness create a veil in which God can not perceive you, and in which you can not perceive God, for they are the thoughts of untruth. They are the thoughts of what love is not. And yet you cling to these thoughts, believing that they are true, believing that they are the guiding force and the power of your life, and yet these thoughts are powerless, and these thoughts are truly a lie. They are truly fantasy. They are truly unreality. (21:53)

No matter what your society or your fellow man says about your past, or your future, or the past of any being upon this earth, it is not true. It is not important, and it is none of their business. It is none of their concern. If your society focuses on this present moment, it does not have the time to look into anybody's past, or to project into anybody's future. When you focus on your past, you are wasting your time, and your entering into a fantasy, an unreality, a world that does not exist. Do not focus (and) do not judge anyone's past. Do not obey the laws and the beliefs of society that condemns their fellow man. There is only correction of mind this moment, and this moment. There is only the innocent child who thinks wrongly, who thinks incorrectly, and believes that love does not exist, that abundance does not exist. There is only the innocent child (being) who forgets that God guides him or her each moment, and that there is absolutely nothing to do except to bath in the love of God.

God is only interested in the truth of Himself. God is not interested in the untrue, or the fantasies of the shadow worlds. God desires to live now, this moment, and to be alive this moment, and to be in joy this moment, and to see the beauty that He is this moment. (27:06)

Why would God be interested in delving into a world of fantasy of what He is not? Why are you interested in delving into a fantasy of what you are not Paul? There is only one law Paul, and that is that God asks and desires to see the love that He is now, without reference to the past or the future, for the past and the future are a form of fantasy, and are a form of the untruth.

Every law within your society should extend from the truth of God, which is love, which is forgiveness, which is compassion, which is abundance, which is caring and sharing, (and) which is the love and the embrace of all things. Man does not guide your society. God and God's Mind are the inspiration and the light for all of man. Fear (and) punishment, and lack, [of] belong to the shadows of fantasy. They do not exist.

You fear your past Paul, and you fear your future, and you fear your society, you fear your fellow man, you fear your body and this world, and you fear your own mind, your own thoughts. And yet none of this is true. Fear is not the substance of God. It does not exist within God. It is not the truth of God, and yet you have adopted it as your life. You have adopted it as guidance for your life. And such is man and mankind. They are guided by an untruth. They are guided by fantasy. They are guided by what love is not, and thus mankind suffers, and mankind suffers, and thus mankind moves in the wrong direction, moves away from God, and moves into fantasy. (34:33)

Seek the truth, Paul. Seek a mind without judgment. Seek a mind that desires the truth, and desires reality. Be not guided by your mind, or the mind of other men. Be not guided by fear. Be not guided by your past, or what you think your future will be. Be not guided by anyone's past or future. Question every thought. Examine every thought. Do your thoughts live within the heart and substance of God? Does your mind live within the heart and within the substance of God? Does your body show God the love that He is each moment? Does your mind show God the love that He is each moment? What is the truth of God? What is the truth of life and living? Is that not your purpose? Is that not your way of being? Bell. (38:35)

And so it is Paul, on this beautiful day, this day without fear, this day without concern. And so it is. End. Bell.
